A. F. Whitney, Labor Leader, Dies At 76

Head Of RR Union Has Heart Attack

Cleveland, July 16—(AP)—Death came to A. F. Whitney, labor leader and political liberal, at the age of 76.

He had gained his greatest public notice in his celebrated 1946 feud with President Truman. But he was Mr. Truman's most prominent labor backer in the last election.

The tall, broad-shouldered man with a plume of white hair had been president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen since 1928. His successor will be named by the brotherhood's eight directors, probably within the next ten days.

Early In Morning
A heart attack, early this morning at his home, caused Whitney's death. He had spent a full day at his office yesterday and was expecting to attend a grand lodge (headquarters) picnic today.

Whitney—he always signed his initials (for Alexander Felt), but his friends called him "A. F."—was a spirited man who could be mild or tart-tongued, according to the occasion.

He once stalked defiantly from the White House, muttering that Mr. Truman was a "political accident."

But he was the sort of man who liked to feed by hand the tame deer and pheasants which he kept at his bay village home.

Crossed Party Lines
Politically, he often had crossed party lines. He liked to quote the single-tax theories of Henry George. He sometimes trumpeted at "Wall Street," claiming bankers had too great a hand in rail management.

He supported Theodore Roosevelt, Woodrow Wilson, Robert M. La Follette, Herbert Hoover and Franklin D. Roosevelt. He was a good friend of FDR, and served on a number of commissions under his appointment.

He belonged to the Progressive Citizens of America, but quit when it supported Henry Wallace's third party. Later he joined Americans for Democratic Action.

In May, 1946, the trainmen joined the locomotive engineers in a strike for higher wages and changes in working rules. The trainmen include brakemen, switchmen, conductors, yardmasters, stewards, and other operating employees.

State VFW Goes On Record For Fat Bonuses For Vets

Springfield, Ill., July 16—(AP)—The Illinois Veterans of Foreign Wars today followed the lead of the National VFW in going on record for fat federal bonuses to World War II veterans.

With virtually no discussion, the 30th annual VFW state convention endorsed overwhelmingly a bonus plan calling for $3 a day for domestic and $4 a day for overseas service.

The resolution suggested a $4,500 ceiling on payments.

The meeting also approved a resolution recommending denial of veterans benefits to wartime members of the merchant marine and others who served in a "quasi military or non military" capacity.

Other resolutions adopted: Urged inclusion of U. S. military personnel under old age benefit provisions of the social security act.

Opposed a military staff for the secretary of defense or any move tending toward a "Prussian-type general staff."

Indorsed universal military training.

Charge Woman, 2 Youths With Death Of Her Husband

Crookston, Minn., July 16—(AP)—Mrs. Carl Baglien, her young lover and his teen-age brother were charged with first degree murder today in the slaying of the 33-year-old woman's farmer-husband.

Besides the woman, the complaint named Egil Kjella, 21, and his brother, Martin, 19.

They were arraigned in municipal court. When they said they did not understand the charges as read, Judge Philip E. Thorson postponed their preliminary hearing until July 23.

Meanwhile, lawyers will be retained for them.

The charge was based on the shooting and beating of Carl Baglien on a lonely country road during a violent thunderstorm about midnight June 26. Baglien's body was dragged into a clump of underbrush and buried in a shallow grave. It was found two days ago.

County Attorney F. H. Stadsvald said the killing resulted from Baglien's refusal to divorce his wife so she could marry Egil, employed as a farm hand at the farm.

Says Third Of Foreign Representatives Spies

Washington, July 16—(AP)—Senate subcommittee today said the State department repeatedly has overruled its visa division and ordered the admission to the United States of foreign officials whose entry has been questioned on security grounds.

Herve J. L'Heureux, chief of the visa division, told a senate judiciary subcommittee that he had appealed such decisions of the department's "political desk" three to five times in the past five years. In each case, he testified, "higher echelons" rejected the appeal, permitting entry of the officials.

In earlier testimony, a department official deputy undersecretary John E. Pennington, said about 10 aliens were admitted despite objections because other factors outweighed the security angle.

The subcommittee, which is considering legislation to tighten the laws against admission of subversive aliens, also got a study of 100 foreign representatives of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA).

The senators had picked out the 100 names of persons who had been granted visas for entry into the United States as affiliates of international organizations or as officials or employees of foreign governments.

The subcommittee asked how many of the 100 had been engaged in subversive activities prior to coming here.

Rear Admiral R. H. Hillenkoetter, CIA director, answered in a letter: 32 of the 100 have records of spy work abroad.

29 of them are high-ranking communist party officials; as such they must be assumed to be "working ardently for the benefit of their governments," and "this activity, by definition, and in the light of known communist methods must be considered to be subversive and against the interests of the United States."

Those relieved of duty were: Maj. Gen. Feldman, 57, who enlisted as a private 42 years ago and rose through the ranks to head the army's quartermaster section.

Maj. Gen. Alden Harry Waitt, 56, who has served most of his 26 years in the army as a chemical warfare specialist.

Secretary of the Army Gordon Gray, who announced the suspensions, said in a statement that a senate investigating committee "has evidence which indicates that General Waitt improperly furnished personnel data to an individual not entitled to receive such data; and that General Feldman furnished to a contractor's representative procurement information under circumstances which appear irregular."

Not Drawing Conclusions
Gray said that he was "not attempting to draw conclusions on the basis of an incomplete investigation," but that he had ordered the officers' release pending the outcome of a complete inquiry by the inspector general of the army.

He acted, he said, "because evidence secured to date indicates that each officer had exhibited a lack of that judgment and sense of propriety which must be expected of persons in their position."

The secretary added that "each officer had exhibited a lack of that judgment and sense of propriety which must be expected of persons in their position."

The secretary added that "each officer would be given ample opportunity for a full hearing."

Shortly after Gray's announcement, Waitt left the Pentagon saying he had no comment at that time. Feldman, reached by telephone later, also said he had no statement.

Hit Supreme Court Justices For Being Hiss Witnesses

Washington, July 16—(AP)—Two Republican House members condemned Supreme Court justices Frankfurter and Reed today for testifying in the Hiss trial and said they will urge a law against such appearances.

Rep. Keating (R-N.Y.) said the nation has been shocked by what he called the impropriety of the two justices. So he said he will introduce a bill Monday to forbid U.S. justices from being character witnesses in court cases.

The justices could not be reached immediately for comment. Both are vacationing outside Washington.

Rep. Velde (R-Ill.) said he will go "right down the line" with Keating, who studied law under Frankfurter at Harvard.

The American judicial system, they agree, could be paralyzed if enough justices appeared as character witnesses and subsequently had to disqualify themselves in cases appealed to the Supreme Court.

"In effect," Velde told reporters, "we would have no Supreme Court," and the ends of justice would be defeated.

Crop Prospects In Europe Fair After Big Drought

Paris, July 16—(AP)—A dry summer is cutting into western European crops, but an Associated Press survey shows harvest prospects are still fair to middling.

Short crops would mean a larger proportion of American aid must go into food imports instead of products that help reconstruction.

Farmers and international economic authorities alike have voiced concern over dry soil conditions since last spring, but no disaster appears in sight.

Italy and western Germany, in fact, are looking forward to what may be record grain crops for the postwar period. But France, which normally grows more than either of them, expects a wheat harvest of just under 7,000,000 tons—compared with last year's good 7,600,000 and a prewar average of 8,000,000.

In some parts of Britain, grain harvests are beginning two weeks to a month ahead of schedule. An agriculture ministry spokesman said:

"We have been congratulating ourselves that it is not worse than it is, for which we are very, very thankful. At times it has seemed less hopeful than it does now."

Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the foreign relations committee told a reporter he doesn't think there will be more than 15 votes against the treaty. Ratification requires two-thirds approval of those balloting. Thus the Republicans will supply the bulk of the expected unsuccessful opposition.

Diamond Jubilee Of Shriners Will Begin In Chicago

Chicago, July 16—(AP)—President Truman comes to Chicago Tuesday for two speeches to the Shrine's national convention.

The six-day diamond jubilee of the fraternal organization—known formally as the Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of North America—will begin tomorrow. Officials say it will be the biggest in the order's 75 year history.

The first of 50,000 to 60,000 delegates have arrived. The visitors will represent temples from the U. S., Canada, Mexico, Panama and Hawaii.

About 100,000 admission-paying customers will hear the president make a 20-minute formal speech in Soldier field between 3 and 4 p.m. (CDT) Tuesday. It will be broadcast by the Mutual and ABC networks. That evening he will speak informally at a dinner in the Stevens hotel.

Mr. Truman is a member of Ararat temple of the Shrine at Kansas City, but his appearance at the convention will be as President of the United States. It will be the first time in Shrine history that a chief executive has attended a convention that capacity.

Aiken Says Truman Farm Plan Is Dead For This Session

Washington, July 16—(AP)—Senator Aiken of Vermont, a ranking farm Republican, said today that the new farm program of Secretary of Agriculture Brannan is dead for this session.

"I believe there is no chance for congressional approval of the whole or even a trial run of the Brannan plan," Aiken told a reporter.

Key Democrats in both the Senate and House said privately that Aiken is right, although some of them still are pressing for an experimental test on a few foods.

Brannan startled congressional experts on farm legislation with his proposal. He wants to let consumer prices of meats, eggs, milk and other major foods and farm products decline when supplies are large. Farmers would get "production payments" or treasury subsidies if the lower prices failed to provide them a "fair income."

Within the past two weeks, there had been talk of an Aiken-Brannan compromise which would give the agriculture secretary a "trial run" of his plan on one or more crops, while permitting the delayed-action Aiken law to take effect as scheduled next year. The Aiken law provides for a flexible rather than a rigid system of price supports.

Washington, July 16—(AP)—A typhoon nears Japanese islands.

Tokyo, Sunday, July 17—(AP)—An approaching typhoon hurled increasing winds and rain today at the Southern coast of Kyushu, southernmost of Japan's main islands.

It is expected to hit with full force this afternoon.

Barring a change in course, the storm will lash in the same general area where another typhoon took the lives of 160 Japanese and did extensive damage less than a month ago.

Allied occupation forces on Kyushu have been alerted for the next 24 hours. However, there are no army installations on the extreme south coast, which is regarded as the most dangerous area.

Precautions have been taken at American and British air force fields along the south coast. Equipment and planes have been lashed down.

Public Housing Program Will Be Slow In Starting

Dozen Senate Republicans Likely To Join Taft Against Alliance

Washington, July 16—(AP)—Nearly a dozen senate Republicans seemed likely today to go along with Senator Taft (R-Ohio) in voting against the North Atlantic pact next Thursday.

Informal checks indicated that more than two-thirds of the party's 43 senate members will support the treaty. They will be casting their lots with Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) in a foreign policy split between the two GOP leaders.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the foreign relations committee told a reporter he doesn't think there will be more than 15 votes against the treaty. Ratification requires two-thirds approval of those balloting. Thus the Republicans will supply the bulk of the expected unsuccessful opposition.

Taft's decision last week to oppose the treaty because he said it can't be separated from the proposed $1,450,000,000 foreign arms program may have repercussions in the 1950 congressional campaign.

As a candidate for re-election, the Ohio senator is certain to be called upon to explain by his opponents why he went against the judgment of a majority of his senate GOP colleagues.

And if advance forecasts are right, while Taft is attacking the treaty and its international implications, most of the other Republican senators running for reelection at the same time will be defending the pact.

Of 12 Republicans up in next year's elections, only two others—Senators Donnell of Missouri and Young of North Dakota—have said they will vote against the treaty.

Taft has demonstrated in the past that he doesn't mind playing a lone hand in such a political situation. He has told friends he knows he will be attacked as an isolationist, despite the fact that he advocated extending the Monroe doctrine to Europe as a substitute for the security alliance.

Senator Morse (R-Ore.), on the other side in the past argument, brought the issue into the senate's debate. After listening to Senator Jenner (R-Ind.) denounce the treaty because of the arms program, Morse got up to say that some of the speeches he had been hearing made him think that "there are stalkers across the Chamber of the United States senate again the ghosts of the isolationists."

Only 50,000 units at most will have been started in the next 12 months, by estimate of Raymond M. Foley, administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency (HHFA). The big cities will be first to rap on Washington's door for funds.

This means that one important by-product of the low-rent shelter program—its stimulus to the construction and building materials industry—will not come immediately into play. It will provide longer-range support into the middle of the next decade.

AP Survey Report
These trends were indicated by the AP survey:

1. Rentals, based on income and not size of family, will range from $10 a month, the minimum in Memphis and Phoenix, to a maximum of $55 in Syracuse. They will be 20 to 70 per cent below the cost of comparable private housing.

For instance: Columbus' rents may range from $15 to $35, as against private rents of $65; Los Angeles' will be $27 as against $75 or $100; Waltham's (Mass.) will be $50 as against $96. New York will charge $7.50 to $9 a room, as against the lowest private rentals of $22.50.

2. The average costs of projects will range from $11,000 for each family unit in New York, and $10,000 in Chicago and Boston, down to $6,000 in Columbus and $5,500 in Phoenix. A medium figure is $8,500, the cost in Memphis.

3. All but six states have legislation permitting local public housing authorities to proceed. The six are Utah, Iowa, Oklahoma, Wyoming, Kansas and South Dakota. At least five others have no announced plan—Idaho, North Dakota, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont.

Twenty-two states have no slum clearance legislation.

Father Overcomes Boy Who Held Off Police With Rifle

Columbus, O., July 15—(AP)—A 15-year-old boy, firing a rifle with telescopic sight, held 12 policemen at bay for a half hour today before he was subdued.

Clyde Houston, who went berserk after a quarrel with his mother, was subdued by his father, Clyde Sr., a mail carrier.

The elder Houston, as police held their fire, walked into his home where the youngster had defied police to enter. The boy fled into an alley, then surrendered the gun to his father.

The police earlier shielded themselves behind automobiles while the boy sprayed the street with a dozen .22 caliber bullets.

The elder Houston, called from his work, shouted as he approached the house:

"Clyde, I'm coming in to get you. You'll have to shoot me to stop me." The boy yelled back, "I'll shoot you, I'll shoot you."

As the father opened the front door screen, the youth fired five shots. And one chipped off a wood splinter which pierced the father's arm.

Houston, as he grabbed the boy, threw him to the ground, apparently fearful that a fresh outburst might provoke the police standing with drawn pistols.

Argentine Quints Are Six Years Old

Buenos Aires, July 16—(AP)—Argentina's Diligent quintuplet today celebrated their sixth birthday late—but enthusiastically.

Actually the quints were six yesterday. The party was delayed 24 hours to avoid interfering with school.

The celebration was at the home of their father, Franco Diligent. Many guests were on hand to eat, dance and play with the children—Francisco, Jr., Carlos Alberto, Maria Fernanda, Maria Esther and Maria Cristina.

Will Cover Many Cities All Over U.S.

Washington, July 16—(AP)—The new public housing program will start slowly but in the six years allotted will cover nearly every large American city and many smaller ones in a $7,000,000,000 building drive.

This became evident today through an Associated Press survey.

The survey showed that 61 cities in states where laws now permit subsidized low-rent housing have plans in various stages of readiness for about 256,000 units.

That is 60,000 more than the same cities planned at the war's end in 1945.

Half On Paper
If this increase holds for the other cities which had housing plans in 1945, about half the 810,000 units contemplated in the new housing law already exist on paper.

The rest are merely a gleam in the eye of local public housing authorities.

Only 50,000 units at most will have been started in the next 12 months, by estimate of Raymond M. Foley, administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency (HHFA). The big cities will be first to rap on Washington's door for funds.

Woman On 50-Foot Pole Rejects 1st Offer Of House

Revere, Mass., July 16—(AP)—Young Mrs. Jean Ellis, sitting on the housing shortage on a cramped platform atop a 50-foot pole, received her first offer of a home today—and turned it down.

It was an offer of a new four-room bungalow at Peabody. After reading the owner's letter, the 24-year-old brunette mother said the price of $6,900 was too high.

Mrs. Ellis climbed aloft into her breezy tarpaulin-covered cabin above the amusement area of this beach resort on Thursday. She took with her an electric stove, an air mattress and a radio, and announced she would stay until publicity finds a home for herself, her steeplejack husband, Arthur, 36, and their four-year-old daughter.

"I said 'does it go off?' and then I pulled the trigger. It worked hard. Then it went off. The pop gun made a noise like a firecracker. The man fell down. I died."

Police Inspector Al Nelder said this is what happened:

Fred Throckmorton, 67, operator of the store, went to the meat counter to fill the order.

Teddy wandered behind the counter. He saw a gun lying there—a gun Throckmorton kept for protection. He picked it up.

"The man said 'look out,' Teddy told police.

UN-AMERICAN DROUGHT

Some real rain fell on the eastern seaboard just in time. We were beginning to fear Congress would put the Weather Bureau people on the pan if the dry spell lasted much longer.

LEGAL BOOM

The anti-trust suit brought by the government against the DuPont industrial empire is expected to last for years. Whatever the outcome, the case ought to take up a good deal of the slack in the legal profession. We shouldn't be hearing about any surplus of lawyers for a while.

Her Pride And Joy---Just Like Daddy's

By JAMES W. REED

Just as soon as she gets the timing and spark adjusted in her jeep, Dianne, three-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Scott, 924 North Prairie street, will be ready to hop in and go for a big spin (as long as she stays in her own front yard.)
The jeep, a nearly perfect replica of the well-known style automobile of the same name, was constructed by Mr. Scott in his washing machine repair shop at his home. He built the car during his spare time last November and December and gave it to Dianne for a Christmas present.
Indeed a most interesting thing about this midsize auto is the fact that it runs—As Dianne says, "just like daddy's car." Measurements on this pint-size automobile are: height, 20 inches; width, 24 inches, and overall length, just 52 inches.
Has Gasoline Motor
The car is powered by a 1/2 h.p.

Briggs and Stratton gasoline motor that will drive the car to a speed as high as 12 m.p.h. The 24 inch drive shaft which connects the motor to the rear universal is driven by a transmission case which was used during the war to turn turrets of tanks. The car will go both forward and reverse and by the use of a hand accelerator can be driven at variable speeds.
Like most new cars, the jeep is fully equipped. It has a horn and lights that are in perfect working order.
The steering is just like real cars—a worm gear attached to the steering shaft and front wheel tie rods. The car rides on 10-inch balloon tires. A tankful of gas (which is a quart) will drive the motor for several hours.

Fire Engine Red

The hood, fenders and grill of the car are made of metal and the sides and floor are built of wood, the back floor being covered with rubber floor mat. The jeep is painted fire engine red and trimmed with silver.
A. J. "Jack" Patrick assisted Scott in building the jeep and at the same time built a car for his son, Jimmy. Both cars are constructed identically.

Scott says the parts and materials for each car cost nearly one hundred dollars not including any labor costs.
Dianne's jeep will be an added feature at the Soap Box Derby Sunday afternoon. It won't compete with the racers entered in the derby but witnessing the driving of this midsize auto down Grove street will be just as exciting as the races.

A Long Gamble On Borrowed Blood

By HAL BOYLE

New York, (AP)—Little Louis, the kid who lives on borrowed blood, has had a good year.
"I don't get as tired as I used to," he said, as he rested on a hospital bed after receiving his 500th transfusion.

Louis was given his first transfusion at the age of seven months when doctors discovered he had Cooley's Anemia. This is a rare childhood disease whose victims are unable to fully replenish their own blood.

There is no cure known. They must live on the blood of others or die. And usually they die anyway. But in Louis's wily 93-pound frame there is a great gusto for living, a stout heart that won't give up.

He is in his 14th year now, and there is a good chance he may yet win his long and tedious gamble for life.

He Discounts The Odds

"If we can pull him through until he's 20, he may improve," said Dr. Harvey Gollanche, deputy medical superintendent at the Kings county hospital. "There are cases of this kind in the medical records."

Louis is a quick-witted, cheerful, intelligent boy. Somehow he has learned the odds are against him, but he discounts the odds. He's sure he'll make it. And hundreds of New Yorkers who never saw him, have helped keep the small, dark-haired kid alive through blood donations to the Brooklyn Red Cross.

He talked about his future as he lay there waiting for his dad to come and take him home.

"When I grow up I'm going to be a radio sports announcer," he confided shyly. "Everybody at school says I got a good speaking voice and I take part in all the plays."

Grammar Isn't Everything

Louis didn't do too well in his three adverbial phrases at us, and I can't tell a dependent clause from an independent clause very easy—but that doesn't worry him. He feels, with some justification, that grammar isn't everything in sports announcing.

He used to have to stay in the hospital several days, receiving a pint of blood each day. Now he only comes each Thursday, gets a pint, and goes home.

The 500 pints of blood borrowed by Louis in his short lifetime is equivalent to the amount that flows in the veins of 50 adults. Sometime he'd like to be a donor himself.
"I'd like to help someone the same way people help me," he said.

daughter of the late James and Belle Huff. Her marriage to Avery Dowdall took place 59 years ago.

During the greater part of their married life, the couple resided on a farm east of Carrollton.

Surviving are her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Flossie Kaffer of Rockbridge; one son, Dr. Vaughn Dowdall of St. Louis; one grandchild and one great grandchild, two sisters, Mrs. Isaac Dowell of Rockbridge and Mrs. Polly Stoddard of Alton; and two brothers, Edward Huff, also of Rockbridge, and Eberle Huff of Carrollton.

The body is at the Simpson Funeral Home in Carrollton. Funeral services will be conducted at the Carrollton Baptist church by Rev. Loral Grigg. Interment will be in Carrollton City cemetery.

The time of the services will be announced later.

Teacher's Neatness Lessons Pay Off

Billings, Montana — (AP)—During her 32-year teaching career, Miss Cora McCormick always stressed neatness to her pupils. That was one reason it distressed her so much when the weeds in her back yard took over and she was unable to cope with them. A neighbor—and former pupil—noticed Miss McCormick's plight. She called other former pupils of the now retired teacher.

Sunday morning at 9 o'clock sharp, former McCormick students began arriving at their one-time teacher's home. The men-folk cleared off the weeds, spaded up the grounds, sowed grass seed and had the new lawn all watered down by noon.

The women cooked food for "lawn party" guests at the house next door.

All sorts of gifts arrived from other former pupils. There were flowers, a lawn chair, a cancelled bill from a tree surgeon and a guest book signed by three generations of Miss McCormick's former pupils.

THE DOCTOR SAYS Irritable Colon One Of Man's Most Common Ailments

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

One of the most common ailments known to civilized man is a condition most commonly called irritable colon or spastic colitis. There is no true inflammation present so that most doctors prefer the first name. Persons who have this condition often believe they are constipated because they do not have open or more satisfactory bowel movements a day.

In a person with an irritable colon, the wavelike motions or peristalsis of the bowel which propel material down the intestines come too close together and force the waste along at a too-rapid rate. This generally results in diarrhea for a short time, after which the bowels will not move because they are empty.

Those who are afflicted with an irritable bowel are likely to be on the thin side. They are often overly nervous and emotional and it is certain that emotion will effect the peristalsis.

Abdominal Pain

Peristalsis may come so frequently that there is discomfort and griping in the abdomen. Emotional upsets or worry almost always make the condition worse, usually producing passage of loose stools. This may be followed by a day or two during which the bowels do not move but the abdominal pain may continue.

Exposure to cold, and various irritating foods, especially raw fruits and vegetables, may make the condition worse. Cathartics and laxatives are frequently responsible for setting off an attack.

When the condition has not existed too long treatment is fairly effective. This includes strict avoidance of laxatives and laxative foods, such as raw fruits and vegetables. A so-called bland diet, consisting largely of cooked cereals, creamed soups, milk products, eggs, fish and other non-irritating substances, is also desirable.

Those who understand the relation between their nerves and the symptoms of their irritable bowel can also help themselves a great deal by trying to avoid annoyance, worry and emotional upsets.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

Prisoner Changes Plea Before Detector Exam

Sheriff Ralph Bourn said Saturday that Paul C. Hobbs, 38-year-old restaurant cook charged with purse snatching, admitted the charge Friday afternoon just before he was scheduled to take a lie detector test in Springfield.

Hobbs was captured about 2 a. m. Sunday morning, June 12, in an alley off South Mauvaisterre street shortly after a purse had been grabbed from the hands of Miss Mildred Armstead as she was walking in front of Waddell's store. Since then Hobbs had steadfastly denied guilt. During his stay at the county jail, where he was being held under bond to await grand jury action, Hobbs sought a lie detector test. Just before the examination was to begin, Hobbs admitted snatching the purse, Bourn said.

Hobbs was followed and captured by John Carl. Assisted by Joe Buckner and Robert Richards, Carl took Hobbs to the police station. The purse with its contents intact was found near a parked truck on South Mauvaisterre street.

Hobbs had been living at 228 E. College avenue. He admitted a long criminal record, but claimed he had not been in trouble for eight years. F. B. I. records show that he was convicted for larceny four times and had served time at Menard and Joliet penitentiaries, the penal farm at Vandalia, St. Charles training school and the Anna and Jacksonville state hospitals.

Registrant Must Keep Draft Board Posted On Changes

Calling attention to the fact that failure to register is a violation of law and makes the delinquent liable to penalty, Paul G. Armstrong, Illinois state director of Selective Service, outlined registration requirements under the Selective Service Act of 1948, which he said he believed were not thoroughly understood by all of the general public.

"The obligation to register," Colonel Armstrong said, "is a continuing obligation and must be fulfilled regardless of whether men are being inducted into the armed forces under the Selective Service Act. The obligation to register is imposed by the Act on every male, citizen or resident, in the United States between the ages of 18 and 26, with only the general exception of members of the armed forces on active duty and certain aliens."

The young man who becomes 18 is required to register "at a local board office within five days of the date of his 18th birthday. Colonel Armstrong explained, but if he happens to be away from home he need not return; he may register at the nearest local board convenient to him and the record will be sent to the local board having jurisdiction, even though it is in another state. After he registers, it is mandatory that a registrant keep his local board informed of any change in his address or change in status. The director pointed out. This applies after he becomes 26 as well as before.

"Many young men at this time of the year are completing their education or are laying plans to carry education into another field such as college or special training, and they find many questions arise that pertain to Selective Service."

Sheriff Holds 2 Boys For Scott, Cass Thefts

Winchester — Sheriff Lawrence Cannon of Williamson county notified Deputy Sheriff George Lettice Saturday morning that two youths had admitted committing the June 26 burglary of three Manchester business houses.

The youngsters, Roland Burgess, 18, and Bernard Gilson, 20, were arrested in Marion Friday after they had boasted of "good hauls" during a trip that began in Joliet about June 1, a trip in which many business houses were broken into.

Cannon said goods from the Charles Travis grocery on June 26 had been identified, as well as the general store in the village of Philadelphia, Cass county, which was burglarized on June 23.

The lock on the Manchester post-office operated by O. H. Hudson was broken on the night of June 26, but no losses were reported. Some merchandise was also stolen from Barnett's poolroom in Manchester that night. Two watches, considerable merchandise and some cash were taken from the Travis grocery.

Deputy Lettice said he planned to go to Marion Monday to bring the two youths to Scott county, unless federal authorities ask for their custody on charges of breaking into postoffices.

Ralph W. Bourn, Morgan county sheriff, plans to question the prisoners concerning the burglaries of the Spot Cafe in Woodson and the Rea filling station in Murrayville, which occurred last month.

Brecheen And Cards Lose To Phils 4 to 2

Philadelphia, July 16—(P)—Third baseman Willie Jones made three of the seven hits the Philadelphia Phils got off Harry Brecheen today as the Phils defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 4 to 2. One of Jones' hits was a home run.

Hank Borowy held the Cards to eight hits but needed help in the ninth inning when the Cards pushed over two runs. Borowy developed a blister and retired in favor of Jim Konstanty with two men out and two runs in the ninth.

The Phils scored two runs in the third on an error by right fielder Ron Northey. Richie Ashburn walked, went to third on Jones' single in front of Northey and scored when Northey threw wild. Jones later tallied as left fielder. Del Ennis grounded out to third baseman Eddie Kazak.

Jones' tenth homer of the year came in the sixth. Ennis singled off Kazak's glove, went to second on catcher Andy Seminick's fly and scored the final Phil run on a wild pitch.

With two out in the ninth, the Cards finally pushed over two runs. St. Louis AB R H O A

Marjorie Lindsay Wins 3rd Illinois Amateur Golf Title

Champaign, Ill., July 16—(P)—Marjorie Lindsay, veteran Decatur shooter, won her third Illinois Women's State Amateur Golf title today with a whopping 12 and 11 massacre of Mrs. H. O. Breault of Chicago in their scheduled 36-hole championship match. It was the largest winning margin in the tournament's history.

The 24-year-old Miss Lindsay, who previously won in 1947 and 1943, dropped only one hole as she finished only one over par for the 25 holes played.

Mrs. Breault took the 23rd hole with a par four and jokingly bowed low with arms extended several times towards smiling Miss Lindsay.

Miss Lindsay, a seasoned campaigner on the women's national golf circuit, won the first five holes of the morning 18 and Mrs. Breault, a head shorter than her rival, never had a chance thereafter.

They finished the morning 18 with Miss Lindsay 10 holes ahead after stroking a par-match 38-38. 76 over the rolling Champaign Country Club course.

Miss Lindsay took the 19th, 20th and 22nd holes for a 13-hole lead. After Mrs. Breault came through with her lone winning hole on the 23rd, the brief afternoon encounter ended on the 25th.

The matches begin tomorrow at the Oak Brook Polo club in suburban Hinsdale. The next game will be July 24 and the third, if necessary, July 31, all at Oak Brook.

El Trebol features the greatest brother combination in polo today, The Menditegu brothers, team captain Carlos and Julio, are rated nine and eight goals, respectively. The handicaps of this pair exceed the total handicaps of the majority of four-man team playing throughout the U. S. They have played on the same team for more than a decade, have carried the team to the Argentine open championship for four consecutive years and have set a fabulous record of 132 victories without a loss.

Boston Braves Wallop Cubs 9-1

Boston, July 16—(P)—The Boston Braves took the odd win of a three-game series with the Chicago Cubs, 9-1, today by blasting three pitchers for a total of 14 hits for Johnny Sain, who turned in his best pitching performance of the 1949 season.

The tribesmen clinched matters for the towering right-hander in the second inning by whaling lefty Bob Chipman for four runs on as many hits plus two bases on balls.

Bob Elliott started that onslaught with a double and then Eddie Sauer, Tommy Holmes and Sibby Sisti followed with consecutive singles. Elbie Fletcher batted his fifth homer for the tribesmen against Wait Dubiel in the sixth and then they landed on him for four more runs in the seventh.

Red Sox Humble Detroit 11 To 1

Detroit, July 16—(P)—Four home runs and Mel Parnell's four-hit pitching enabled the Boston Red Sox to humble Detroit's Tigers 11 to 1 today.

The circuit blows accounted for nine of Boston's runs. Ted Williams got the first one in the opening inning with one aboard. Birdie Tebbetts and Al Zarilla hit theirs in the third and fourth innings, respectively, and each came with two on base.

In the sixth, Bobby Doerr, who had scored on Tebbetts and Zarilla's blows, got a homer of his own with the bases empty.

Czech Legation Kept From Seeing 2 Tennis Exiles

Gstaad, Switzerland, July 16—(P)—While security police kept a weary eye on Czechoslovakian diplomats, tennis stars Jaroslav Drobny and Vladimir Cernik, who renounced the Communist Czech government, faced each other today in the semifinals of the Swiss championships.

The two gave strict orders to the Swiss that they were not to be contracted for any reason whatsoever by members of the Czech legation—and their wishes apparently were being carried out.

Jan Zalenka, cultural attache of the Czechs, demanded to be taken to their room, but was refused. He then said he wished to talk to them by phone, but the Swiss security police, who were rushed from Bern to protect the athletes, also vetoed that idea.

The actual tournament has been pushed to the background while players and officials speculate on the results of the move. In joint statements, Drobny, and Cernik denied they ever were Communists, and said they wished to take refuge in the United States.

Cincinnati Beats Brooklyn 7 To 6

Brooklyn, July 16—(P)—Walker Cooper slammed two home runs today, his second coming with a man on base in the top of the 10th inning, to enable the Cincinnati Reds to defeat the Brooklyn Dodgers, 7-6.

The Dodgers made a determined rally in their half of the 10th. Jackie Robinson opened with his 10th homer, off Ed Ewart. Gil Hodges was safe on Red Stalcup's fumble, but was forced by Carl Furillo. Billy Cox lined out and Roy Sampanella walked.

Pinch-hitter Marv Rackley then hit a single on which Bobby Adams made a sprawling dive and stop being second, preventing the tying run from going over. With the bases loaded, Peeewe fled out to end the game.

The defeat prevented the Dodgers from increasing their game and a half lead over the St. Louis Cardinals, who were dumped by the Phils in Philadelphia, 4-2. It was the first Cincinnati triumph in Ebbets Field this season in nine tries.

Cleveland Whips Athletics 7 To 3

Cleveland, July 16—(P)—Gene Bearden, the Cleveland Indians' top rookie last year, won his first victory since June 15 today, defeating the Philadelphia Athletics, 7 to 3.

But he won it as a relief pitcher and had to be relieved himself in the seventh. Satchel Paige took over for him with two outs and the bases loaded and coolly fanned Hank Majeski.

Then Satchel went to work, finishing the game by retiring the next six men.

Sammy Snead Still Leads Dapper Dan Golf Tournament

Pittsburgh, July 16—(P)—At the risk of being repetitious, it was Sammy Snead again today in the Dapper Dan golf tournament.

Outstanding his field, the long-driving national PGA champion from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., fired his third successive round under 70—a 69 today after a pair of 67's to reach the 54-hole turn with a total of 203.

That figure was 13 strokes under par and five strokes better than the total posted by Sammy's nearest rival, Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago.

Mangrum also was under par for the third straight day with a 70 and moved into second place.

Par for the hilly, 6850-yard Alcoma golf club course is 36-36-72 but that doesn't mean much to Snead. It is the kind of course he can play well, with wide rolling fairways, and few traps. Taking advantage of the open spaces, Sammy lashed out his drives today, just as he had in the first two rounds, and reached out where he could fire his approaches close to the pin.

Bob Hamilton of Landover, Md., aiming for the last spot on the Ryder Cup team which will be named tomorrow, came in with a 68 for 209. Toby Lyons of Warren, Pa., matched Hamilton's score to tie for third.

Browns Overcome Yankees 4 To 2

St. Louis, July 16—(P)—The St. Louis Browns salvaged the finale of a three game series with the New York Yankees, winning today, 4-2.

A heavy rain halted play after five and a half innings.

Lefty Joe Astrowski pitched the abbreviated contest for the cellar-dwellers, limiting the league leaders to five hits.

The Browns got all their runs in the first inning with Lefty Tommy Byrne on the mound. Bobby Dillinger opened with a single, advanced to second on a one-bagger by Gerry Priddy, and to third on a walk to Whitey Platt.

Roy Sievers delivered a two-run single, and when Johnny Lindell threw the ball past the plate, Platt went to third and Sievers to second. Jack Graham's long fly scored Platt. Sherm Lollar grounded to Phil Rizzuto, who threw wide to first, Sievers scoring.

Eddie Waitkus To Leave Hospital Today For Philly

Chicago, July 16—(P)—Eddie Waitkus, the 29-year-old bullet-punctured Philadelphia Phillies' first baseman, says tomorrow'll be a red letter day.

Tomorrow, he plans to leave Billings Memorial hospital and fly to Philadelphia. It will be the end of more than a month in the hospital. And—"Boy, I'm telling you hospital life is driving me nuts," he says.

Eddie talked to newsmen today and seemed glad of the opportunity. He's been kept pretty quiet most of the time since he was shot June 15 by an added woman fan. She is Ruth Steinagen, 19, who has been committed to a mental hospital.

"I want to see the Phillies play, but I probably won't be able to get to the park until Monday," Eddie said. "Haven't seen a ball game recently because I haven't been able to get the television set working right. Couldn't get the aerial set up here."

Waitkus, an honorary member of his league's squad, heard the American-National league All Star game, though, on the radio, and it didn't make him happy. "Something's always happening to the Nationals in those games. They always pull something you wouldn't do in high school," he groaned.

Eddie still doesn't know whether he'll get into uniform this season. They removed the bullet from near his spine a week ago.

"I've still got a couple of drain tubes in me, and they'll have to stay in a couple of weeks," he said.

"No, I haven't got the bullet. I think the doctor kept it. Physically, I feel fine. I'm a little weak, I guess. I've lost between 10 and 15 pounds."

Ryder Cup Team To Duel Nelson's Golf Pro Outfit

Pittsburgh, July 16—(P)—Byron Nelson, the retired golf champion, thinks he can pick a pro squad that will give the United States Ryder cup team a real tussle in an exhibition series.

The Ryder cup team, of course, won't be officially named until after the $16,000 Dapper Dan open ends tomorrow. But arrangements already have been made for the cuppers to play Nelson's team at Boston, Aug. 27 and 28, just before they sail for England.

This is a bit of added incentive for the leaders in the field which starts the second half of the Dapper Dan today. Nine golfers, four of whom are here, are sure of their places on the team. The tenth will have to earn it today and tomorrow and right now Dick Metz looks like a good bet.

Pale Hose Defeat Washington 5 To 1

Chicago, July 16—(P)—Pitcher Bob Kuzava and Second Baseman Cass Michaels ganged up on the Washington Senators to give the Chicago White Sox a 5-1 victory for a 2-1 series edge here today.

Michals batted in four runs with a double and single. He also started three double plays, the second of which paved the way for Washington's only run.

Kuzava's bit was a neat six-single performance for his fifth victory and his third route job of the season.

WHERE THEY PLAY

New York, July 16—(P)—Probable pitchers for tomorrow's major league games (won and lost records in parentheses):

Myers Bros. And Springfield Merchant Nine To Meet Tonight

Myers Brothers and the Sixth Merchants of Springfield moved in to the finals of the softball tournament by eliminating Loami and the Implement Dealers.

Paul Blakeman of the Myers Bros. crew turned in a sterling performance as he shut out the Loami nine and give up only one hit. He struck out seven men and issued only one base on balls. Not one player on the Loami squad got past second base.

However, his teammates caught fire in the second inning with a 3 hit 2 run rally which turned out to be the deciding runs of the frame. Big John Wolfe opened the inning by reaching first on an error by the Loami team. Paul Lasley then tripled to bring him in. Morris then singled to bring in the final run of the game. The Myers nine filled the bases on a hit by Stroud and a walk by Sims, but the side was retired before any more runs scored.

Second Game The second game was a little more active with the Springfield Merchants defeating the Implement Dealers 5 to 1. The Springfield batsmen led off in the first inning with a run, and the Dealers came back to tie it up in their half of the inning.

Everything was quiet then until Springfield exploded in the fifth for four runs on three hits and two errors by the Dealers.

The playoff for the championship will begin at 9:30, with the consolation match as a preliminary at 8:00.

Box Score: Myers Bros. Sims, 3b 1 0 0 Shay, 2b 3 0 0 Allen, 1b 3 0 0 Wolfe, cf 3 1 0 Lasley, lf 3 1 0 Morris, c 3 0 0 Stroud, rf 3 0 0 Blakeman, p 3 0 0 Totals 25 2 3 Loami

Bucs Take 2 From Giants 9-0, 7-6

New York, July 16—(P)—The Pittsburgh Pirates moved to within two and a half games of fifth place today by whipping the New York Giants in a doubleheader, 9-0 and 7-6.

After bombarding Clint Hartung and Sheldon Jones with six home run blasts in the first game, the Pirates took advantage of a blooper single by Pinch Hitter Vic Lombardi in the 11th inning to win the second game.

Lombardi's single, a pop fly that fell untouched in short right field, scored Stan Rokjok from third in the top of the 11th and broke up a 6-6 tie. The Giants had fought an uphill battle, scoring two runs in the seventh and four in the eighth to overcome a 6-0 deficit.

Bob Chenes pitched the second game shutout for the Bucs, limiting the Giants to six hits. Outfielder Wally Westlake, who also hit a homer in the second game, smashed two round trippers in the opener as well as two singles. Ralph Kiner belted No. 24. Ed Fitzgerald, Dino Restelli and Chenes also connected for the distance.

Polio Cases 17% Above Last Year

Washington, July 16—(P)—One of man's tiniest but toughest foes—the polio bug—is kicking up his summer antics once more.

Whether these tiny viruses—so small that 25,000,000 of them could fit on a pinhead—will produce a major epidemic this year remains to be seen.

But statistics so far for the infantile paralysis "season" which began late in March indicate at least a troublesome trend.

So far, the number of cases for the nation since the start of that season is about 17 per cent greater than had been recorded during the comparable period last year.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, July 16—(P)—Hogs and cattle were quoted nominally steady today while no sheep were offered for sale.

Hog prices advanced seasonally this week, ending at about the highest point for the year. The closing top was $23.00 after gains ranging from 75 cents to $1.50. Smaller receipts and an active wholesale pork trade at advancing quotations spurred the live hog gains.

In contrast with hogs, cattle arrived in heavy numbers. Most of the offerings consisted of slaughter steers. Despite the outpouring, prices held up fairly well. Closing quotations were only around 50 cents lower than a week ago. Top was $28.75.

Choice lambs closed 50 to 75 cents higher. Receipts increased at major markets.

Gonzales Enters Finals Of Clay Court Tennis Meet

Chicago, July 16—(P)—Defending champion Pancho Gonzales did a neat semi-final job today to bracket himself with Frankie Parker—as entirely expected—for a National Clay Court Tennis title showdown tomorrow.

Top-seeded Gonzales gained the payoff round by outlasting third-seeded Vic Selvas of Philadelphia, 6-2, 5-7, 6-4, 6-1 in the masculine half of two semi-final singles at the River Forest tennis.

In the feminine division, another defending champion, Magda Rurac of Los Angeles brushed aside Rosemary Buck of Dallas, Tex., in straight sets, 6-2, 6-4.

Magda's championship opponent tomorrow will be Beverly Baker of Santa Monica, Calif., who got past the semi-final round yesterday, as did Parker.

Argentina Polo Club Will Meet U. S. All-Stars

Chicago, July 16—(P)—Crowds in excess of 15,000 are expected to watch the 28-goal El Trebol Polo club, champion of Argentina, attack an all-star U. S. team in a three-game series for the Inter-American polo championship.

The matches begin tomorrow at the Oak Brook Polo club in suburban Hinsdale. The next game will be July 24 and the third, if necessary, July 31, all at Oak Brook.

El Trebol features the greatest brother combination in polo today, The Menditegu brothers, team captain Carlos and Julio, are rated nine and eight goals, respectively. The handicaps of this pair exceed the total handicaps of the majority of four-man team playing throughout the U. S. They have played on the same team for more than a decade, have carried the team to the Argentine open championship for four consecutive years and have set a fabulous record of 132 victories without a loss.

Markets At A Glance

Chicago, July 16—(P)—Wheat—Firm; short-covering. Corn—Steady; aided by rally in wheat, rye. Oats—Easy; more heavy cash grain receipts. Soybeans—Strong; large scale short covering. Hogs—Nominally steady. Cattle—Nominally steady.

THE STORY: Mrs. Malone, a widow, has joined a strange caravan of trailers—a large one and a smaller one—bound for a mysterious destination. Already Mrs. Malone, who is the cook for Mrs. Everson, who lives in the large trailer, has begun to wonder about the mystery of the travelers. Besides Mrs. Everson, an arrogant woman who inherited her money from a wealthy husband whom she married as a waitress, there is a house guest, the Marchese DeLennan. Rudy, the chauffeur who drives the truck which tows the large trailer, strikes a familiar note in Mrs. Malone's memory and she thinks he may have been a movie actor once. The Filipino houseboy, who drives a sedan which pulls the small trailer, is a graduate of Columbia. Mrs. Malone has been questioning Rudy and Victor about their destination. Rudy says: "We're on our way to a place of safety." Mrs. Malone presses him for more details. Safety from what?

VI

"WELL, it was this way," Rudy began. "Less than a year after Pappy died Mrs. Everson had established herself in a big house in Bel Air. She entertained well—very well—and pretty soon everyone was coming to her parties. She's got something, you know, and she's a whale of a good actress. No doubt about it. She even fooled me at first! But when you drive a woman's car, she talks to you. Lord! What a hard egg! If I ever saw someone out for No. 1..."

Rudy's eyes flickered. "Then one day she got a Big Idea..."

He broke off, raised an eyebrow skeptically. "You've heard of nuclear fission?"

"You mean the atom bomb? Yes, I've heard of it," Rudy pushed his coffee cup aside. "Now listen carefully," he said.

"I wouldn't tell this to everybody. It's a little hard to take..."

It began, he explained, with casual conversations; people discussing the Bomb, wondering how soon it would be tried on America; where they'd go, in case; whether Los Angeles would be a likely target—all the usual talk.

At first, Mrs. Everson paid little attention. She felt too safe, personally, to worry much. When her new friends talked of living in underground cities or mountain caves, she just told them not to be silly. The authorities would never let it come to that!

Rudy smiled. "Have you ever sat on the beach," he said, "when the tide was coming in? You don't pay much attention at first. And then, all of a sudden, in comes a wave a little bigger than the rest, and you get wet. It must have been that way with the Boss. One day she said:

"Rudy, do you really think there's any danger in this atom business? I mean, could everything just explode and burn up?"

"I told her I didn't know. Myself, I'm fatalistic about it. If we ever do get blown up, we'll never know what hit us. So why worry? But that didn't satisfy her. I guess she was too anxious to make up for lost time."

LIE broke off and stared moodily down at the table. A peculiar tension seemed to have invaded the room.

Then Victor spoke. "Tell her, Rudy," he said. "Tell me what?" Mrs. Malone demanded. Suddenly, without reason, her heart contracted. She became aware again of the tank-like compartment in which they sat; the metal walls, the humming generator, the hoarded supplies, the dials and instrument panels, its mysterious destination. The two men stared at each other queerly. "We're running away from the Bomb!" she cried. "Is that what you're trying to say?" Rudy nodded. "Mrs. Everson thinks so," he said. "Then she is crazy!" "Maybe. But one thing's certain: she didn't jump at any conclusions. Before she decided, she did a job of research. I'll hand her that. She even got to know some of the big scientists, and entertained them a lot.

"Maybe one of them talked out of turn. I wouldn't know. Anyway she got hold of the idea that the whole country was about to be blasted to hell and gone, and she claimed she knew when..."

"A lot of 'holy baloney!' Mrs. Malone exploded.

"THE two men did not move, and again the woman became conscious of that tension in the air. "Do you expect me to believe it?" Mrs. Malone asked. "Mrs. Everson believes it," Rudy repeated. "But do you, Rudy? And you, Victor? She's a crazy woman hepped on the atom bomb. Scientists! Talking out of turn! They don't tell things over a tea cup. I tell you, I don't believe a word of it."

Victor and Rudy sat silent for a moment. Rudy looked at her half smiling, half serious. "Perhaps," Rudy admitted doggedly. "I'm not sure. I wish I were. The Boss hasn't much imagination. She's as practical as all get out; with her, it's just self and last. And one to be bet on: if there's going to be an atomic catastrophe and there's any surviving done, Mrs. Everson will do it."

"How?"

ENEMY IN THE SKY

This man isn't searching for enemy aircraft over the skies of Jacksonville. He's simply seeing how a caliber machine gun in aircraft firing position works.

Thousands of World War I and II veterans and their families flocked into Central park Saturday afternoon and night to see the National Guard's exhibit, C.O.C. 123rd Infantry displaying.

With the weapons on field mount, the temptation to "dry fire" was too much for many. Little children looked on in amazement as civilians deftly worked the triggers and could be shot, it was said, which would knock out the heaviest tank. Several guardsmen roved about the square and communicated with each other over walkie talkies. Those who heard the demonstration were heard to say it sounded much like the telephone.

A field range, minus K.P.'s, was open to all. And of course, the famed lister bag was present, with ice water instead of the army version within.

Co. G will furnish guardsmen to help with traffic at the Soap Box Derby this afternoon.

Fraudulent Auto Dealer Knetzer Is Sued For Divorce

Hot Springs, Ark., July 16—(AP)—Robert Knetzer of Edwardsville, Ill., who parlayed an automobile delivery plan into a million dollars, resulting in an indictment for alleged fraud, was sued for divorce today.

The suit was filed by Mrs. Dolores Cheat Knetzer. She charged her husband mistreated and abused her. They were married in St. Louis in 1939.

Mrs. Knetzer asked for custody of their five-year-old daughter—but no property settlement. The Knetzers' $40,000 home at Edwardsville was taken over by the court handling the bankruptcy proceedings.

Knetzer is under indictment in Illinois on charges of obtaining money under false pretenses and conspiring to defraud in collecting money on pledges to deliver new automobiles when they were harder to get than they now are. Knetzer is said to have collected more than $1,000,000.

Police Catch Vandals Who Broke In Church

Jerseyville—Sheriff C. E. Wedding was called to Fidelity Thursday morning to investigate a break in and damage at the Baptist church in that village.

A window of the church had been broken and the parties entering had torn up some hymn books, Sunday school quarterlies and other church literature and scattered it about the building.

The damage and imprints of hands and feet indicated to Wedding that the break-in had been committed by some very "small fry." He rounded up several small suspects, and they readily admitted their participation in the entering of the church. One of the suspects gave his age as seven years.

Last year the Bethel church at East Newborn was broken into by vandals and heavy damage was committed there to the interior of the building and its fixtures. An extensive effort was made to round up the East Newborn offenders, and the Illinois Bureau of Criminal Investigation and Identification participated in the checkup of the Bethel church. Finger prints were obtained from a number of items handled by the offenders, and these are now in the files of the bureau subject to future checking with finger prints of parties picked up for other offenses in the course of events.

The bridegroom-elect was graduated from the Webster Groves high school in the 1947 mid year class and will receive his degree from Culver-Stockton in business administration in 1951.

Fast Triple Play Fouls Car Thief

Jacksonville and midwestern police pulled a play last night that makes the fastest triple play combination in baseball look slow, and may serve as an object lesson to potential thieves.

At 6:43 Saturday night Frank Colwell, at Alexander, became suspicious of a young man in a new Chevrolet, carrying a Missouri license, who was attempting to sell golf clubs to buy money for gasoline. The young man said he thought he might leave his car in Alexander and hitch-hike to Chicago.

Mr. Colwell notified Jacksonville police who immediately contacted Springfield. Having no record of any stolen car answering the description, Springfield police decided to contact Missouri.

Using its radio, Springfield called East St. Louis. The St. Louis police were contacted. They reported back by radio that a car answering the precise description had been stolen.

All this had taken but several minutes, and the man, who gave his name as Dick Winder, 20, of Canton, was arrested as he entered New Berlin.

Anybody care to make a living stealing autos?

The board will meet in the near future to determine the location of the consolidated school.

Navy Experiments With Device To Stop Ship's Roll

Washington, July 16—(AP)—If a navy anti-rolling gadget for ships works out, sailors won't need seasickness pills to walk the decks and gunners can shoot better.

The navy announced tonight a ship stabilization system, designed to reduce the rolling motion of a ship by as much as 80 per cent, is being installed in the minesweeper Peregrine at the Norfolk, Va., navy yard.

The Peregrine will go out into the infamous stormy weather area off the Virginia capes next month to try out the device.

In the experimental device aboard the Peregrine, two pairs of large tanks are mounted on opposite sides of the ship. High speed pumps, operating automatically, transfer water from one set of tanks to another as the ship starts a roll. The roll thus is "dampened" by suddenly changing the balance of the ship to offset the rolling tendency.

Wherry Hits Red Ink Spending As Truman 'Blunder'

Washington, July 16—(AP)—Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the republican leader in the Senate, said tonight that President Truman made "a terrible blunder" in advocating red ink spending by the government.

He contended the president is "confused, bewildered and perplexed."

Like Senator Taft (R-Ohio), who spoke last night against Mr. Truman's program, Wherry said the president has set in motion forces that lead toward "a totalitarian state."

In a radio address, Wherry added that jobs, plants, farms and savings "are in jeopardy because the president has thrown away all pretense of being for sound government financial policies and freedom of enterprise."

Wherry noted that the president had said in his radio address last Wednesday night that if the country was in a depression he would be the first person to say so.

The Nebraska retorted that the president doesn't need to tell farmers "that farm prices have fallen sharply since last November," that many are jobless and that business has fallen off.

Inquest Tuesday Night Into Arsenic Poisoning Death Of Chapin Youth

An inquest into the arsenic death of Marvin Bruening, 20 year old Chapin farm youth, will be held in the Morgan county circuit courtroom at 7 p. m. Tuesday, Coroner C. H. Muehlhausen announced Saturday.

The diagnosis that arsenic poisoning was the cause of death was confirmed Friday when State's Attorney Al W. Hall and Sheriff Ralph Bourn received the results of laboratory tests made by the F.B.I. laboratories in Washington, D. C. Both offices began investigating the incident soon after Bruening was admitted to Passavant hospital.

The coroner's jury consists of Howard Reynolds, Everett Belote, Ira Patterson, Frank Epler, J. C. Colton and Milton Edge. These six men were sworn in by Coroner Muehlhausen on July 1 when an autopsy was performed at the Gillham Funeral Home.

The Bruening youth died at Passavant hospital on Friday morning, July 1, after a period of protracted suffering. He was first admitted to the hospital on June 4 in critical condition.

Use Secret Drug
It was learned Saturday that a World War II top secret drug, B.A.L., had been used by attending physicians in an attempt to save Bruening's life. B.A.L., British anti-Lewisite, was developed by English chemists during the war to counteract the terrible effects of Lewisite gas poisoning. Lewisite gas is derived from arsenic and no chemical had been formulated before the war that had proved helpful in treating arsenic poisoning.

It is felt that earlier treatment with the new drug might have saved Bruening's life.

Killed In 50-Foot Plunge From Car Of Roller-Coaster

Irvington, N. J., July 16—(AP)—A 50-foot fall from a speeding roller-coaster car caused the death today of 25-year-old George Falcatano.

His bride of two months, who said she had been too frightened to take the ride with him, watched from below as Falcatano plummeted to the concrete.

His brother-in-law, Morris Stanley, was riding in the rear seat of the roller-coaster car while Falcatano sat in the front with a cousin, Earl J. Mummery Jr.

Stanley said all went well until the car swerved to the top of the second crest of the roller-coaster. "As we came to the top, I saw George stand up and then he fell," Stanley told police.

Police shut down the ride at Olympic park for several hours after the accident, but it was allowed to reopen later.

Mother Of Eight Who Advertised For Hubby Is Wed

Salt Lake City, July 16—(AP)—Mrs. Elena Lebanon, 30, the divorcee and mother of eight who made the nation's headlines recently when she advertised for a husband, has married.

She is now Mrs. Robert Shrewsbury.

The couple disclosed today that they eloped to Evanston, Wyo., last week and were married. They now are planning a four-month honeymoon to Arizona.

Sure, Shrewsbury said, they are going to take the children. "What's a honeymoon without kids?" he said, surveying his new wife of eight.

"I think Elena and I will have some additions to the family," Shrewsbury is a 35-year-old Salt Lake City carpenter.

Divorced himself, he is the father of four children. Shrewsbury, who fell in love with Mrs. Lebanon when he saw her picture in the newspapers when she first advertised for a husband, averred he is going to keep his new wife in the kitchen.

Mother Agrees To Give Up Boy She Hid For 14 Years

Boston, July 16—(AP)—The mother of Gerald Sullivan, 14, whom she hid from the world for most of his life, has agreed to give him up, her attorney said today.

Attorney Daniel J. O'Connell said Mrs. Anna Sullivan, 45, signed documents giving the Catholic charities bureau authority over her son.

Gerald's plight became public knowledge March 14 when he appeared on the street clad in a girl's tattered dress and with his wavy brown hair down to his shoulders.

Mrs. Sullivan was convicted on a charge of neglecting Gerald and is awaiting a superior court hearing on her appeal from an indefinite sentence in the Framingham Women's reformatory. She is free in $1,000 bail.

Mrs. Sullivan told police she hid the boy in her home because she was "ashamed." She said she was not married to Gerald's father.
